

Invitation: Book Discussion on Democratize Work - October 26

Organized by:

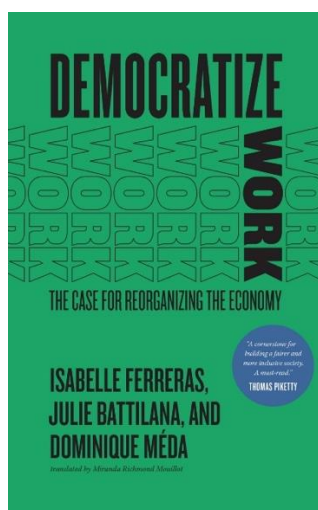

Labor and Worklife Program
HARVARD LAW SCHOOL

Social Innovation
Change Initiative
CENTER FOR PUBLIC LEADERSHIP

Please join us at Harvard Law School's Wasserstein Hall, Room 209 from 12:15 pm to 1:15 pm ET on Wednesday, October 26, 2022 for an [in-person/hybrid] event for a book discussion related to Democratize Work: The Case for Reorganizing the Economy, published in May 2022 by the University of Chicago Press.

The event will consist of two parts: first, a presentation by two of the co-editors of Democratize Work, followed by a panel discussion of leading scholars of democracy and labor on the themes presented in the book.

Speakers

Opening Presentation: conducted by Isabelle Ferreras (University of Louvain/Harvard Labor and Worklife Program) and Julie Battilana (HBS /HKS-SICI).

Panel Discussion: chaired by Sharon Block (HLS). Panelists will include Archon Fung (HKS), Marshall Ganz (HKS), Nien-hê Hsieh (HBS), and Anna Stansbury (MIT Sloan).

Session Details

Date: Wednesday, October 26, 2022. Time: 12:15-1:30 pm ET

Location: Wasserstein Hall, Room 209, Harvard Law School